

Senior Operations Professional

Consummate Results-Driven Leadership

Account Management | Program Development
Sales | Business Development

"A natural/superb commander whose tremendous fighting spirit has been the center of gravity...improved every measurable category that headquarters tracks...consistent mission maker...poster child for commitment...best Commander in Force Headquarters Group...intense competitor...gifted communicator."

- ✓ High achieving, multiple award-winning operations, logistics, and program manager offering immediate value backed by a redoubtable military career replete with distinction in strategic planning, project management, team leadership, human resources, civic engagement, and diverse rapid-response initiatives.
- ✓ Exert leadership presence with expeditious recovery of declining operations, big picture thinking, frontline leadership, full accountability, inspirational tenacity, and unwavering focus on operational objectives.
- ✓ Refuse to submit second-best performances; attack operational and personal goals that surpass expectation, foster team unity, cultivate new potentials, and steer company mission with exceptional bottom-line effect.
Top Secret/ Sensitive Compartmented Information Security Clearance through 2015

Former AH-1W attack helicopter pilot

- Corporate-wide Operations Leadership
- Supply Chain & Logistics Management
- Articulate & Persuasive Speaker
- Strategic Communications | Executive Liaison
- Executive/External Partnerships | PR
- Multi-national Relationship/Ally Management
- Security & Safety Focus
- Budget Administration | $MM Asset Manager
- Training Specialist | Top-tier Team Building
- Global Tactical & Policy Knowledge

—CAREER SNAPSHOT—

U.S. MARINE CORPS, BROOKINGS INSTITUTE, Washington, D.C.

2013

Senior Military Fellow

Honored with selection as 1 of only 7 individuals across all military services to act as Marine Corp liaison and representative for the exclusive Federal Executive Fellowship Program serving 7 prominent military service leaders annually; foster group strategic thinking on tactics and policy, and amass strategic knowledge gleaned from the expertise of these proven and carefully selected leaders.

- Compile and synthesize annual research, and coordinate voluminous materials to facilitate authoring of publications on strategy, resourcing, supply chain management, and defense/defense resourcing themes.

4TH ANGLICO INSPECTOR-INSTRUCTOR STAFF, West Palm Beach, FL

2010 to 2012

Commanding Officer

Ranked #1 of 7 Commanders within the Force Headquarters Group. First active duty aviator to command within the Air Naval Gunfire Liaison Company community. From Commanding Officer's performance report: "Easily falls within the top 10% of all Lieutenant Colonel's I have served with in my 26 years of service."

- Selected immediately after initial eligibility to perform as Lieutenant Colonel spearheading organization-wide operations for more than 250 personnel, $8.5MM in assets, and a $2MM annual operating budget; oversaw strategic planning, human resources, administration, medical, performances, safety programs, family support, and all other operations, with 25 direct reports.
- Negotiated and liaised among factions of military expertise; bolstered battalion's community profile and civic involvement through continuous media engagement, public speaking, and PR strategies. Partnered with community agencies to include collaboration with Palm Beach County re: Toys for Tots campaigns.

Continued on Page 2

3RD MARINE AIRCRAFT WING, San Diego, CA

2009 to 2010

Command Inspector General

Hand-selected representative for the Commanding General regarding unit inspection, and consultation and advisory roles across the enterprise; directed 45 inspectors helming 118 functional programs that inspected 14 Marine Squadrons and higher organizations.

- Assessed and ensured exacting operational readiness standards, administrative procedures, operations plans, safety controls, and integrated progressive enhancements to efficiencies within the unit.
- Expeditiously reported and resolved discrepancies, elevated best practices, and cited demonstrations of excellence; managed confidential investigations and answered to congressional inquiries.
- Developed strategic briefings for General Officers, senior leaders, and peers in regards to best practices, positive trends, allegations, tactical recommendations, and investigative outcomes.

MEDIUM HELICOPTER SQUADRON 262, Okinawa, Japan

2008 to 2009

Director of Operations

Candidate of choice among ten peers to direct Aviation Combat Element aboard the USS Essex; established top performing presence in operations and leveraged status as fully qualified attack helicopter pilot.

- Ideated long-range planning, scheduling, and strategic deployment for 10 managers, 29 helicopters, and more than 400 Marines and a 100-pilot ready room; catalyzed achievement of aviation support mission, with 20 direct reports and execution of 4,000+ flight hours as critical mission component for naval vessels and land support in Thailand, the Philippines, Japan, Korea, and Australia.
- Architected comprehensive backward strategic planning to monitor and maintain mission integrity, and fulfill all mission objectives; executed presence and sustainment missions emphasizing and facilitating prosperity of global alliances, and collaborative response tactics for combat and natural disaster.
- Interface with adjacent operations officers to formulate executive-level collaborative initiatives for short-/long-range strategy, milestone achievement, change, and solution implementation.

LIGHT HELICOPTER SQUADRON 267, Camp Pendleton, CA

2007 to 2008

Aircraft Maintenance Officer

Achieved 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing's FY 2008 Marine Light Attack Helicopter Squadron of the Year distinction as excelling maintenance department manager; oversaw 6 managers, 11 supervisors, and 300+ personnel re: all maintenance of 29 UH-1Y Huey and AH-1W Super Cobra aircraft valued at $25MM+/per.

- Surpassed HQMC goal of 60% aircraft readiness availability by 24% (84% mission capable). Cited by Commanding Officer as "The top Aircraft Maintenance Officer I have seen in 18+ years, unprecedented performance leading the largest maintenance department in the Marine Corps."
- Planned simultaneous/deployed detachments throughout California, Iraq, and the Western Pacific.

RECRUITING STATION TWIN CITIES, Minneapolis, MN

2005 to 2007

Commanding Officer

Helmed annual Marine Corps accession mission and shipping for more than 2k USMC prospects spanning a five-state region (MN, ND, SD, WI, IA); provided organization-wide leadership of 110 recruiters, $2MM in assets, and an $800k operating budget.

- Initiated turnaround campaign for a failing recruiting station: galvanized command personnel and quickly earned coveted "Superior Achiever" distinction for exceeding quota and surpassing all quality standards.
- From Commanding Officer: "Improved every measureable category that Headquarters tracks for production, shipping, and quality standards. Within two months of arrival, his unit became a consistent mission maker and defied all prophecy by others that they would miss their shipping requirements. An intense competitor and very decisive decision maker, tough negotiator and gifted communicator."

—EDUCATION—

MASTER of SCIENCE, National Resource Strategy, National Defense University's Dwight D. Eisenhower School —Supply Chain Management Concentration Program Certificate

BACHELOR of ARTS, Psychology, DePauw University, Greencastle, IN